

Brian J. Klocek, PGA
Bklocek@Totteridge.com

Brian started in the golf business at the age of 16 and has served for a combined twelve years as the first assistant at two private facilities and a combined 8 years as the head golf professional at two public facilities within the Tri-State PGA Section since 2003. He is currently the PGA Director of Golf at Totteridge Golf Course. He has been affiliated with local courses such as South Hills Country Club, Nemaquin Country Club, Valley Green Golf & Country Club, and The Phoenix at Buffalo Valley.

In April 2011, he obtained Class A membership with the PGA of America. In the last 20 years, he has taught a diverse clientele, including many of the top amateur players in the Pittsburgh area.