

Daniel Braun, PGA
dbraun@iup.edu

Dan has served as the Head Golf Coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania since January 2019 and is in his first year serving as the Tri-State Section PGA President. Prior to his time at IUP, Dan was the PGA Professional at Indiana Country Club from 1992 through 2018 and the Lead Assistant at ICC from 1990-1991. During his time in the Tri-State Section, Dan has served four terms as a Director (2004-2006, 2009-2011, 2013-2015, 2017-2019), 4 years as TSPGA Secretary (2019-2022), and as TSPGA Vice President (2023-2024). The highlight of his career was being named TSPGA Golf Professional of the Year in 2017.

At IUP, Dan is honored to guide the many talented young men who have played under his tutelage and with whom he has built lasting relationships. His priority is to provide a memorable experience during their time as a member of the Crimson Hawk program. Benefitting from the hard work of his players, Dan was named PSAC Coach of the Year 3 times (2019-2020, 2022-2023, 2023-2024) and NCAA Atlantic Region Coach of the Year for the 2019-2020 season. A graduate of Penn State University, Dan was a member of the Men's Golf Program and served as Captain during his junior and senior seasons. Following his college career, he entered the industry as an assistant golf professional at what is now known as Mountain View Golf Club in State College, PA, before moving to Indiana, PA.