

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hill Herrick Inducted into the Tri-State PGA Hall of Fame Class of 2025

Carnegie, PA | October 23, 2025 - The Tri-State PGA is proud to announce the induction of Hill Herrick, PGA Director of Golf at The Greenbrier Resort, into the Tri-State PGA Hall of Fame Class of 2025.

A PGA Member since 1987, Herrick brings more than 44 years of experience in the golf resort industry. He began his career at The Greenbrier in 1984 as an Assistant Professional, quickly rising to Head Golf Professional in 1991 and ultimately being named Director of Golf in 2023. Herrick is also a PGA Certified Professional in Golf Operations, earning that designation in 2013.

A native of Saginaw, Michigan, and a Michigan State University alumnus, Herrick lettered all four years on the golf team while earning his degree in Marketing. His competitive record includes multiple top-10 finishes in the West Virginia Open, West Virginia PGA, West Virginia Senior PGA, and Tri-State Section PGA Championships.

Throughout his distinguished career, Herrick has received numerous accolades:

- PGA National Merchandiser of the Year (2011)
- Tri-State PGA Professional of the Year (2006)
- Tri-State PGA Merchandiser of the Year (2007 & 2011)
- Tri-State PGA Bill Strausbaugh Award (2016 & 2021)
- West Virginia Golf Professional of the Year (2004, 2005 & 2011)
- Named #1 Golf Instructor in West Virginia by Golf Digest in 2003

Beyond the fairways, Herrick is a cancer survivor, a mentor to young musicians, and an accomplished French Horn player who has performed with local ensembles since 1982. He and his wife, Carol, a former Greenbrier chef and active community volunteer, have been married for 34 years.

When contacted about his HOF induction, Hill Herrick had the following to say... "I never in my wildest dreams would have imagined this honor and am very grateful to the committee, my fellow professionals, and the wonderful Tri-State PGA Staff."

Hill's lifelong dedication to excellence, mentorship, and service embodies everything the PGA stands for. We are honored to celebrate his remarkable career and contributions to the game.

About the Tri-State PGA

The Tri-State Section PGA represents golf professionals in Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and the northern panhandle of Maryland, dedicated to growing the game and upholding the highest standards of professionalism in the sport.

Media Contact:

Frank Murgia, Tri-State PGA Director of Communications

1-724-774-2224

fmurgia@pgahq.com

TriState.pga.com